

Community Forum User Guidelines

- When you sign up to participate in the forums, you agree to follow the basic requirements.
- All conversations must be polite, respectful of privacy, and related directly to the Villages at Godley Station community. Vulgarity, attacks or threats of any nature, political conversations, sharing of personal or false information, and spam are prohibited. Selling or advertising goods and services are also prohibited.
- The Administrator(s) may enter any conversation that includes conjecture or misstatements to correct information and, when necessary, remove the conversation from the Forum. Any conversation that fails to comply with the requirements may be removed without notice or explanation.
- Failure to comply with these basic requirements may result in a suspension from the Forum for a time-period deemed appropriate by the Administrator(s).
- If you have any questions, comments, suggestions, or issues, please contact the Administrator(s) by email.
 -
 - Hollie Barnridge at Hollie.barnridge@GodleyHOA.org
 - David Lotz at David.Lotz@GodleyHOA.org
- Posting requirements are subject to change to address any unforeseen circumstances. Ideally, users will regulate themselves to ensure a community-friendly space to avoid future changes to these basic requirements.